5 things you should know...

- If Yukon Public Schools are closed for inclement weather, Community Education will be cancelled.
- Register early! Classes may be cancelled due to insufficient enrollment.
- Refunds must be requested one week before classes start. A $5.00 processing fee will be charged for refunds. No refunds will be given after the first class.
- Anyone attending a class must pay the class fee.
- Scholarships and Senior Discounts are available for Yukon School district residents only. Some classes are exempt from this offer.

Liability Statement: The Really Fine Print!

Some YCE classes are taught by people who are practicing financial planners, sales persons of investment products or services, or actively involved in a business or profession that is related to the subject they teach. YCE endorses their ability as instructors, but makes no comment as to their professional skills or abilities or the value of any product or service they sell.

By enrolling you or your child in a class where you will be an active participant, you indicate you or your child has no physical conditions which would make your participation hazardous to you or your child's health. Additionally, you understand that the Yukon Public Schools will be held harmless for liability to any loss, cost, injury or damage to person or property which may arise by engaging in these programs.
